

ABSTRACT

[36] A vaso-occlusive device having a length, at least a portion of the length having a serpentine secondary shape when the device is in a relaxed condition. The vaso-occlusive device deliverable to a vasculature site such that
5 as the device is deployed, it immediately forms along the wall of the vasculature site, thus occluding the site.

1007080-133001